

CC&L – Fundamental Canadian Equity and Fixed Income team updates

As part of a strategic review of team structures, CC&L has made a decision to expand leadership resources. As a result of this Andrew Zimcik is being promoted to Co-Head of the Fundamental Equity Team and will be working alongside current portfolio manager – Gary Baker. Mr. Zimcik has eight years of experience with Fundamental Equity products and leadership.

In addition, Steve Vertes, Senior Portfolio Manager on the Fundamental Equity team will be retiring effective March 31st, 2022. All of Steve's current responsibilities will be re-allocated to other members of the team.

On the Fixed Income side, Brian Eby has made a decision to step back from the Co-Head role and David George will be taking over the leadership of the team as the Head of the Fixed Income team.

March 03, 2022